

1278

The two ^{Christian} churches at Chankany were built in 1278 by one MARK SARGIS, a Western Christian who was governor of the city for 3 yrs.

1278

(1218-1291) RUDOLPH I

King of Germany and Holy Roman emperor (1273-1291) and founder of the present (1910) of Austria, or House of Hapsburg. The great Interregnum began in 1256 and for many years, Germany was without an acknowledged head. In 1272 the pope tried to force the election of an emperor. Rudolph of Hapsburg was chosen as the most fitting, and was crowned at Aix-la-Chapelle in 1273.

In 1276 he made war on the King of Bohemia who refused to acknowledge him and took valuable territory from him. He defeated and slew OTTOKAR in 1278 at MARCHFELD & placed his own sons Albert & Rudolph, in charge of the forfeited lands. He suppressed the "robber barons" and destroyed their stronghold.

1278

1912 Dates' J-BK

Italy & Germany
Papal states recognized by the emperor Rudolf of Hapsburg.

Aug 26, 1278

BATTLE OF MARCHFELD

Count Rudolph Habsburg routed
the army of his leading rival for the crown of the Holy Roman Empire, King OTAKAR of BOHEMIA

1278

1912 Dates J-BK

Italy & Germany

OTTOCAR of BOHEMIA was defeated in the Battle of Marchfeld. The result was the establishment of the Hapsburg dynasty in Austria.